

Connie Podesta

Comedian, Human Relations Expert, Author

Wednesday, May 9

Connie Podesta is a game-changing ball of fire who uses a rare blend of laugh-out-loud comedy, killer takeaway strategies, and a unique, interactive delivery style to connect with her audience, while delivering hands-on advice that changes lives and bottom lines. An author, educator, therapist, and former director of staff development and employee assistance, Connie doesn't just address her audience—she captivates them, inspires them, and motivates them to new heights of personal and professional achievement. Offering practical advice that can be applied at work and at home, she reminds audiences that the quality of their personal life directly affects their professional success. Connie is the author of Ten Ways to Stand Out From the Crowd, Happiness Is Serious Business, Audiences Stand Up When You Stand Out, Life Would Be Easy if It Weren't For Other People and Make a Fortune Selling to Women/Men.